

It [Final Flight] was an extraordinary tale and the section where he [Peter Stekel] found the second body – a first glance a dead tree – was remarkable and well told. And, of course, like any writer/reporter, I like the unraveling of a good mystery.

I thought the maps of the intended and actual flight were well researched and thought out.

I noted the Pentagon announcement of the finding of the crash site at the time and had wondered how three flight cadets and a lieutenant ended up in the same aircraft.

I'm grateful to Peter Stekel for solving one of those many mysteries that are filed away in the back of my mind.

If you want to use any of these comments, that would be fine.

Thank you very much

David A. Fulghum
Senior Military Editor
Aviation Week & Space Technology